

Strolling Down the Isthmus

Lyrics and music by Burchie Green,

Lets take a stroll down the isthmus and go swimming in the strait . Oh darlin' get your suit let's not be late.
Then we'll skip down the peninsula and splash into the gulf
and swim out to an island way out there.

But, before our homes we'll go to an archipelago
and swim to all the islands if we dare.
Then of course for goodness sake
we'll rinse the salt off in the lake and home to our families we will go.

Bridge:

And on some sunny day well take a rowboat on the bay, pick raspberries and grapes as we go hiking on the cape.
