

In the Realm of the Senses

Lyrics by Matt Levin and Burchie Green /music by Burchie

1.) In the realm of the senses I see what I see.
Red ripe tomatoes and a bumblebee.

Flowers rainbows, autumn leaves

In the realm of the senses I see what I see.

2.) In the realm of the senses I hear what I hear.

Peeper frogs singing springtime's near.

Cats gentle purring rainfall and you stirring

In the realm of the senses I hear what I hear.

CHORUS: Seeing touching tasting smelling hearing, these are my senses five.

Everyday I use my senses makes me feel alive.

3.) In the realm of the senses I touch what I touch.

Soft furry kittens there's oh so much.

Warm beach sand cold snow and such.

In the realm of the senses I touch what I touch.

4.) In the realm of the senses I smell what I smell.

Fresh cut grass and lilacs as well,

Ocean breezes, salty shells,

In the realm of the senses I smell what I smell.

CHORUS: -

5.) In the realm of the senses, I taste what I taste

Ice cream cones dripping on my face,

Watermelon, chocolate cakes,

In the realm of the senses I taste what I taste.
