

Water-Table Blues

words & music: Matt Levin

When I go to the water-table, what do I do?
I first count all the people, I make sure I'm one of two,
because two is the rule at the tub.

When I go to the water-table what's the next thing I do?
I roll up my shirt sleeves, first one, and then two.
'cause two is the rule at the tub.

But there's no splashin'; there's no drinkin';
there is laughin', there is thinking,
when two is the rule at the tub!

When I go to the water-table what else do I do?
I pull on my splash smock I'm surprised I don't need two,
'cause two is the rule at the tub.

But there's no splashin'; there's no drinkin';
there is laughin' - - there is thinking'
when two is the rule at the tub!
